

Trail Riding Rhodes by Elpida Ranch

Day 1: Arrival, transfer.

Day 2: After an introduction in the arena we get to know the horses during a short ride. This will take us to Thari Monastery, where we will relive the story of a Byzantine princess. Back at the ranch we discuss the rest of the week's program and enjoy a delicious dinner in a traditional tavern.

In the saddle about 3 hours.

Day 3: We will ride to the beach past a donkey farm to the village of Asklipeo and visit a church (built in 1060), the old frescoes show the apocalyptic horsemen as well as excerpts from the Old and New Testaments. Depending on the weather we will splash on the beach with the horses.

In the saddle about 6 hrs.

Day 4: Today is our riding free day. After breakfast you will be driven to Lindos, a once famous fishing village and famous for its acropolis. You can explore this village, relax on the beach or stroll through the numerous stores (usually open from May-October). If you want, you can book one of the following activities: Catamaran ride (approx. 160,- per person), private city tour of Rhodes (approx. 180,- per tour), excursion to the island of Symi (approx. 80,- to 90,- per person incl. transfer), massage (approx. 30,- to 80,-). > In the evening we will be spoiled with culinary delights in the taverna.

Day 5: We ride over long forgotten donkey trails to the small mountain village of Aigios Isidoros. The way there leads us past olive and pine groves, with incredible panoramic views of the Aegean and the Mediterranean Sea. We will have lunch in one of the highest taverns on Rhodes. If you like, you can hike up the highest mountain Ataviros*. In the evening we will be warmly welcomed in the taverna and spoiled with local cuisine.

In the saddle about 5 hours.

Day 6: We ride to the biggest dam of Rhodes, where we can swim in good weather. If you want, you can glide over the water in a canoe. After relaxing a bit in the hammocks, we will visit a king's tomb carved in stone (about 300 years before Christ) before heading back to the farm.

In the saddle about 5 hours.

Day 7: Today we ride over small paths and enchanted trails in the middle of nature and small canyons (in spring small waterfall) we ride today to the highest point of our village (400) and here we review our tours, with a view of the dam to the sea and the highest mountain of Rhodes, you can see the tours of the week.

In the saddle about 3 hours.
